ALMA

Foundations have been poured and upper construction work started for the thirty-room dormitory addition and for the three-room class-room building at Alma College. The dormitory addition extends toward the lake, while the classroom unit will run parallel with the present theologian's building. In the new dormitory only twenty rooms will be furnished.

Lower Lake has been drained, cleaned and refilled in anticipation of the theologian's summer vacation at Alma. Mr. Spils and Mr. Burris have constructed a dock for our single rowboat and for the diving platform. An adjacent volley ball court and dressing room facilities are planned.

During the Easter vacations, Fathers Edward Sullivan and William McClellan, professors of Canon Law and Scripture respectively, went to Los Angeles for Holy eWek supply work. Fr. Eugene Gousie, Professor of Fundamental Theology, supplied at Santa Barbara. The remaining professors helped out around the Bay region.

Donations for three sets of ordination vestments and for the furnishing of one new room in the addition to the theologians' quarters have been received from the petition made in the last issue of the Western Jesuit. Ten more sets of ordination vestments must be supplied and nineteen rooms must be furnished.

More than three thousand cuttings from the vast treasure trove of Tevis' shrubs and trees have taken root in the hot house under the care of Mr. Carlo Rossi. These cuttings will be distributed to the colleges desiring them as soon as the shrubs and trees are thoroughly rooted.

Fr. Charles Leahy, S. J., province lecturer against Communism, gave his second talk on Communism to the theologians. It was a forecast of future Communistic work on the Pacific Coast and an outline of anti-Communistic effort carried on by Sodalists in our colleges.

BROPHY

On Good Friday Father Burns began Mass at noontime so that the people might attend. Mr. Fader explained the services step by step.

At the training camp for Scout

Leaders Father Flynn addressed over a hundred Scoutmasters from all over the State of Arizona, on "Back to God and away from Atheism and Communism." They have invited him to act as Chaplain at their State Camp Geronimo, in June.

Over 80 Brophy Graduates have successfully entered college during the last six years. They are featured in the April "Brophyite". A drive is on to send them to catholic colleges, especially our own.

"Richelieu" was the annual play.

Brophy won its dual debate from Mesa High.

During the State Convention of the Knights of Columbus in Phoenix, the wives of the delegates will be guests at Brophy at an entertainment.

The Sodalists have given lenten talks to the student body on the Seven Last Words, the Stations, and the Sorrowful Mysteries. They had a guard of honor in the chapel every day during the noon hour.

Because Father Madigan's class lectures have been so successful, the Seniors are to write their term essay on Communism.

In direct contrast to the communist-inspired strike on war on April 12, Brophy held a symposium on the "Morality of War". The Officers of the Associated Students spoke on different subjects. The student body pledged itself to defend the United States in a just defensive war. The local press praised Brophy for its stand, and the Associated Press carried reports of the activities.

Father Rector worked hard to win $1000.00 by getting subscriptions for the Arizona Catholic Herald. He got millions of votes, —and $50.00!

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

Father Rector attended the National Catholic Educational Meeting in Chicago, and presided at the meeting of the Northwest Association.

During the Easter vacation Father Vaughan consulted with Father Feely on the methods of combating Communistic propaganda in California.

The new oil field, a mile and a half west of Loyola, now numbers about 35 wells; 10 already producing oil.

The dahlia bed near the garage has been enlarged to twice its former size. Two plots of grass and shrubs have been planted near the east entrance of the Arts Building. The work to connect Gonzaga Road with Loyola Boulevard has been begun.

Mr. Ryan gave two lectures to the Crespi Club in Pasadena, one on "The Catholic Approach to Modern Literature", the other on "The Catholic Note in Modern Poetry."

LOYOLA HIGH

Fathers McClellan and Edward Sullivan, professors from Alma, spent their Easter vacation at Loyola High. Both helped at Blessed Sacrament during Holy Week. A bad cold, however, forced Father McClellan to spend a good part of the vacation in Queen of Angels' Hospital.

Father Hagemann forced by the condition of his eyes to discontinue his work in Rome, spent a week at Loyola High while Father Nestor helped him to learn from memory the votive Mass of the B. V. M., which he has the privilege to say daily.

Father Rector returned from the educational meeting in Chicago in time for President's Day on May 1. There was a military Mass praesente Pontifice, a military review, a track meet, and a lunch served the guests by the Henry Welch Guild. On this day was dedicated our Blessed Mother's Shrine, artistically built of varicolored volcanic rock, against the outer wall of the sacristy. The generous donations of the boys were completed by the Henry Welch Guild.

While in Los Angeles Father Hubbard stayed at Loyola High; his two dogs, Mageik and Pavlof, dreamed of Alaska salmon as the little gold fish floated past them in the patio. There were radio announcements of Father's coming, and his picture appeared on the front page of the Los Angeles Times' rotogravure section.

On Holy Saturday Father Belanger baptised six adults, the fruits of the Loyola convert class.

The Sodality is responsible for the organizing of various study clubs in the Los Angeles diocese, dealing with Communism. There are fifteen clubs. Each week the outline of the work to be done appears in The Tidings, giving references for the answers. Several of the clubs are under the direction of our Fathers. At the High School Father Donohue and Father O'Connell have one club each, Father Falvey has two. Father Leahy has one of college students who speak before other groups, working men and the like. His best men are sent to him by Father Falvey. Already summer sessions have been requested by the study clubs of Loyola U., Mt. St. Mary's, and Immaculate Heart students.

The Loyola Study Club is working to sell the "Catholic Worker", a monthly published in the interest of labor and the anti-communist movement in the United States.

Mr. Raymond Gudie, chief technical engineer of the Gilfilan Radio Corporation, gave an interesting lecture and demonstration to the high school radio club.

Fathers Edward Whelan and Bart O'Neill gave a mission at Sacred Heart Church.

Father Fox gave two missions, one at Lone Pine, the other at Bishop.

LOS GATOS

Brother Kennedy suffered a stroke recently which seemed his last. He was anointed, but soon rallied.

Father Rector attended the National Catholic Educational Meeting in Chicago.

Father Charles Leahy addressed the community on Communism, April 13. Father James Malone gave the Juniors two lectures on Dante.

Recently on a work day at Tevis', Father Master and Brother John F. Connolly received severe burns, when a caldron of hot soup exploded as they were prying off the cover.

SAN FRANCISCO

Father Feely's pamphlet on "Just What Is Communism" has been published by the Paulist Press. They will publish the rest of the series.

Madame Secretary Perkins, of the United States Department of Labor, was an honored guest at U. S. F. in March.

Father P. Dunne gave the ninth in the series of ten faculty talks. His was "The Jesuit Missions on the West Coast."

Father Feely closed the series with a discussion of the "Ethics of Sterilization."

The U. S. F. debating team made a tour of Southern California arguing the munitions question with U. S. C., Occidental College, U. C. L. A., Loyola and Pomona College.

Fathers Ring and Albert Whelan attended an educational meeting of the Northwest Association in early April.

On March 29, the University observed President's Day. Eleven trophies were awarded for outstanding performances in athletic competitions.

The High School held its President's Day on March 22. Father Ring watched the athletic contests until rain brought the day to a sudden close.

The Glee Club of U. S. F. presented a lenten concert in the auditorium.

Courses will be offered in ten different departments of the Liberal Arts College this summer from May 20 until June 22. All classes will be in the morning, the regular faculty conducting the classes.

Father Howard has begun the Guadalupe Study Club as one of the Junior Sodality activities. Its object is to study the religious outlook in Mexico.

The annual sophomore oratorical contest was held in April. Hugh O'Donnell speaking on the ideals of Justice Oliver Wendall Holmes, Jr., won the gold medal award.

On April 1 and 2, to gain the plenary indulgence, the sodalities of St. Ignatius High made a pilgrimage for the Holy Year.

In April the Senior Sodality staged a fathers' night. Short talks and a play made up the program.

The high school graduation will take place June 1, at the Opera House.

SANTA BARBARA

The Old Mission parish joined with ours for the Jubilee. Father Stack preached at the Mission and Father Augustine in our church.

Dolores High again took first honors in the diocesan apologetic contest. Rayda Broeffle won the cup for her speech on Communism.

Three of our high school girls and five boys, under the direction of Father Maginnis, were given an ovation at a Kiwanis program.

On April 22, Fathers Provincial, Socius, Gousie, and Stack, took part in the blessing of the well now being drilled on the province property. The well was named Dom-Ric No. 1, after Fathers Giacobbi and Gleeson.

VARIA

Father Hubbard has established a record with his lectures. In 176 days he gave 196 lectures; and in 185 days, 215 lectures. His lectures are a very material help to Alaska; since November he has given $6,000 to Bishop Crimont; and by summer will have given $8,000.

Father Albert Casey and Brother William Riley are due for their last vows on August 15, 1935.

By taking preliminary examinations in Hebrew and Syriac, Father Casey was able to free himself from classes in these subjects in the first year of his biennium; no small advantage, as Hebrew per week is a 4-hour course, and Syriac a 2-hour course.

Father General visited the first year biennists. In spite of his years he still has a goodly store of energy.

Father Franchi gave a Mixed-Mission for a week in Marin County. It is an English-Italian Mission. A sermon is given in English, and then is followed by another in Italian. The church was filled every night, and the pastor advocates a more general use of this type of mission.

Father Morton is doing somewhat better. His doctor reports that he is attending Mass now, and that he is not so depressed as he was.

DEATHS IN THE ASSISTANCY

Father Mm. A. Stinson, March 21, Chestnut Hill, Mass.
 Father Raphael Sampson, March 27, New Orleans, La.
 Father George S. Weibel, April 3, Seattle, Wash.
 Brother John B. Rosati, April 13, San Jose, Calif.

DEATHS OF RELATIVES

Mr. Paul Harney's mother.
 Father Franchi's sister, Mrs. Olsen.
 Mr. Wm. Corvi's father.
